

LOCAL BREVITIES

Went lovely woman stoops to folly,
And points a pistol at one's head,
He says, "Things look so awful squally
I almost wish that I were dead."

But when she grabs his pants and jacket,
And throws them over the window ledge,
He quickly tumbles to the racket,
And sighs, "I'm on the ragged edge."

The sincere thanks of the Association were tendered to all who contributed in any way to the success of the occasion.

Charity Concerts.

A meeting was held last night at the Cincinnati Maennerchor Hall to make arrangements for the fall concert for the benefit of the Catholic and Protestant Orphan Asylums and the Relief Union.

It was resolved that the concert be held on the evenings of the 26th and 27th of September, and the matinee on the 28th of September. The prices for any of the entertainments were fixed at 50 and 75 cents, the latter for reserved seats. Season tickets, admitting to all of the concerts, will be sold at $2.

Death of James McKenzie.

Mr. James B. McKenzie, one of the most popular conductors of the Little Miami Railroad, died yesterday morning at Xenia, O. He served for a long time in the employ of the road, and his death will be regretted by a large class of acquaintances and friends. He had attained a high place in the order of Masons, and his funeral will be attended by a large number of his brethren of this order, at Waynesville, at 2 p. m. on Sunday next. All Masons will be carried free to and from the funeral on the train leaving the city at 8:40 a. m., and returning at 8 p. m. Members of the McMillan Lodge, Cincinnati Commandery, and A. & A. Scottish Rite Masons will go as bodies.

No More Three-Cent Glasses.

A delegation of brewers from this city went over to Kentucky yesterday afternoon to lay out the facts to them that they must no longer sell beer either in Covington, Newport or Cincinnati to the saloons who retail the concoction in schooners or at 3 cents per glass.

The meeting was held at Workingmen's Hall, on Pike street, and all those present agreed to "sit no more." The signature of Deppa & Co., of Newport was the only one not secured to the agreement, and now schooners and two glasses for 5 cents will soon be a thing of the past.

Miss Nolan.

The S. P. C. A. met yesterday afternoon to look into the case of Miss Nolan, the teacher of the Fourth District, accused of seriously whipping Lily Jack on the 1st of last April. The charges against Miss Nolan have been up before three different Committees of the School Board, all of which took testimony in full, and all of which dismissed the case. The child herself testified that Miss Nolan had unmercifully beaten her with her fist, both in the face and chest, from which she grew ill and took to her bed. Emma Malloy corroborated this testimony. On the contrary, Miss Nolan said that on that day Lily Jack began to cry bitterly. When asked what was the matter she replied she had headache and felt bad. Miss Nolan then kindly asked her whether she wanted to go home? The girl said she did, and Miss Nolan sent her home in charge of Emma Malloy. Miss Craig the other teacher, declared to the Society that she was in the room when all occurred exactly as Miss Nolan had related it.

The case was laid over for further testimony.

Mr. Bradstreet, a member of the Society, denounced to the Society making itself a public Court and taking unwarranted testimony. He said it had no such power. He said, moreover, that it looked as if the Society was trying to persecute a weak woman in this case, whereas, in the alleged cruelty cases in which Principal Filmore and teacher Herbolz were connected they had compromised the cases. This caused quite a breeze in the meeting and it took some time to quiet the excited minds.

AKRON, O., June 22.—The first race yesterday was won by Alex. S., the second by Dan. Donaldson, and the third by Lewinski.

PITTSBURG, June 22.—Only one race yesterday, which was won by Blonddil.

The Regatta.

PROCTOR, ILL., June 22.—The regatta was a complete success. The prizes were distributed before a large audience. The Moline Club carried off the honors, taking five prizes. The affair closed with a grand ball.

Pedestrianism.

BUFFALO, June 22.—At 5:30 p. m. Byrne and McMullen stopped walking by mutual consent. During the heavy rain this afternoon and evening, the water poured through the roof of the rink, rendering the track unfit for walking, and soaking the men through. As that hour Byrne had made sixty-two miles and five laps and McMullen sixty miles. The match is off for the time being.

SHOT BY HER HUSBAND.

Fearful Family Tragedy at Lawrenceburg.

A terrible family tragedy occurred last evening near Lawrenceburg, Indiana. Ezra Guard, a once wealthy farmer, lived about three miles from that place. Owing to his drunken habits and cruelty his wife obtained a divorce and lived with her little boy at her mother's at Hardensville. The wife's maiden name was Abbie McKintosh.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Guard went to the depot to see a friend, when her husband stepped off the train. She at once left for home. Guard was maddened at this, and wrote her a note that he wanted to see her. She, however, tore up the note and luckily threw it where Guard saw the pieces. One hour afterward he came to the door, and on its being opened by his wife he at once began beating her with an umbrella.

The child, who was with them, began crying, when its father caught him up in his arms, and after having dragged his wife for a hundred yards he drew a Smith & Wesson revolver. He placed his wife at an arm's length from him, and then deliberately fired the ball entering the eye and penetrating the brain. She died within fifteen minutes.

Guard then placed the muzzle of the revolver at his forehead and fired. The ball, however, glanced off and inflicted only a slight but painful wound. He then took a large class of acquaintances and friends. He had attained a high place in the order of Masons, and his funeral will be attended by a large number of his brethren of this order, at Waynesville, at 2 p. m. on Sunday next. All Masons will be carried free to and from the funeral on the train leaving the city at 8:40 a. m., and returning at 8 p. m. Members of the McMillan Lodge, Cincinnati Commandery, and A. & A. Scottish Rite Masons will go as bodies.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

Lively Time over the City Advertising.

The Board held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

The resignation of Adam Bisack, Constable for the Eleventh Ward, was accepted.

Mr. Ross presented the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the City Auditor be and he is hereby instructed to discontinue the city advertising in all papers except those with which the city has a contract or contracts pending."

Mr. Fitzgerald moved to refer the resolution to the Finance Committee.

A bitter discussion ensued between Messrs. Fitzgerald, Ross and Von Seggern. Mr. Thompson favored the resolution. The motion of Mr. Fitzgerald to refer was lost.

A vote on the resolution resulted: Yeas 23, nays 10. The resolution lost, as it required a majority of the whole Board, according to the decision of the Chair.

Mr. Von Seggern appealed from the decision of the Chair in declaring the resolution lost. Mr. Von Seggern claimed that the resolution did not require a majority of the whole Board.

Mr. Kelborth seconded the appeal.

Mr. Fitzgerald supported the Chair's decision.

The Chair was sustained.

Mayor Moore's communication relative to an armory for the militia was referred to the Military Committee.

Resolutions from the Board of Public Works:

To contract with Charles Folz & Sons to improve Fifth avenue, from Charles street to Center street. Adopted.

To condemn the Colerain, Oxford & Brookville Turnpikes to lay water-pipes to Cumminsville. Referred to the Committee on Condemnation and Vacation.

Adjourned.

SLASH THE PRICES
THAT'S JUST WHAT MABLEY
MEANS TO DO!

No More Waiting for Good Times, we will make them lively if we don't make them good. We don't wish to get rich, but we do want to be busy. Only one thing will do the business, and that is, to SLASH THE PRICES! SO SLASH IT IS!

But, before quoting prices, we want you to distinctly understand that these fearfully low figures are not on old Odds and Ends, or on a paltry few hundred dollars' worth of stuff, fit only for an auction room, but on Thousands and Thousands of New Styles of Frock and Sack Suits, in light and dark shades, from four dollars up. Thousands of separate Pants, in all the latest styles, from seventy-five cents up. Alpaca Coats from one dollar up. Striped and Plaid Summer Coats from fifty cents up. White vests from seventy-five cents up. Boys' and Children's Suits in endless variety, in all styles, color and price. We have put in stock during the past week over one hundred thousand dollars' worth of regular A No. 1 goods, at prices that enable us to knock the underpinning clean out of the ruling prices for the same quality of goods, in this or any city in the Union, and at the same time pay us a profit—small though it be—on every dollar's worth we sell. Now, that's business, to sell goods away below everybody else and yet make a profit. We have done it here in Cincinnati since we opened, and it astonishes our brother dealers quite as much as it does our customers. Read the prices, see the goods, try how they fit, look at the making, examine the trimmings, and if they are not better made and trimmed and cheaper than you can find elsewhere, don't buy.
